

Delegates who have experienced Amanda's coaching say that she:

... has a unique ability to make complicated things simple.

... asks great questions and listens in a truly valuing way that helps develop insight and action.

... is very easy to relate to, and talk to.

...has great clarity of thinking and presents with impact.

...has the ability to explain concepts and principles in lay terms.

... gave me the motivation to actually do something about my current situation.